We want to merge ODIN Europe with ODIN Global

ODIN's vision is to create value for the future. For you as a customer, this means that we generate good returns over time, as we have done for almost 34 years through our active, long-term and value-oriented management.

Enclosed is the notice of a unitholder meeting in connection with the desired merger between ODIN Global and ODIN Europe. ODIN Europe has had a declining customer base in recent years, and there has been low demand for the fund. The merger will give ODIN Global a larger capital base and pave the way for strengthened and more efficient management.

What consequences will the merger have for you as a unit owner

As regards the merger itself, it is not necessary that you take any action, but we still encourage you to cast your vote. Your holdings in ODIN Global will remain unchanged after the merger unless you wish to redeem or exchange funds for another fund during this period. There will be no change in costs or fees, nor will administrative costs of the merger be charged to the fund or unitholders.

You can read more about what the merger entails in the attached notice of unitholder meeting.

If you have any questions about the merger, you are also welcome to call our customer service on telephone 24 00 48 04.

We work focused to deliver you great returns.

Sincerely,
ODIN Forvaltning AS

Bjørn E. Kristiansen
